Your Wedding at Faith Lutheran Church

Thank you for allowing us at Faith Lutheran Church to assist you in the planning of your wedding service. Here is how we can help you:

1. We can help make your wedding a worship service where you, your family and your guests can celebrate God's love for us through Jesus Christ as we thank God for the gift of love in marriage.
2. Our pastoral staff can help you prepare for marriage. They have special training and give preparatory sessions in the context of the Christian faith.
3. Our wedding coordinator can answer many of your questions about the specifics for your wedding ceremony. She will also conduct your wedding rehearsal.
4. Our organist and wedding coordinator can assist you in selecting from a broad repertoire of music that will reflect your taste and be appropriate for a worship service.
5. Our Fellowship Hall is available for receptions.

We consider it a privilege to serve you in the planning of your service, for we believe that God has made a special investment in you and in your love for each other. We want your wedding day to be a joyful and blessed celebration, a reflection of God's love for you.

The rest of this booklet contains many helpful details and guidelines as you plan your wedding. Please call the church office if you have questions. May you experience God's blessings on all of your preparations!

About Marriage

Choosing to be married in the Church is a reflection of your Christian faith and recognition that the Church is the community where Christians gather to worship, learn, witness, and serve. It is also recognition that the Church is your spiritual home and the place where many important steps in your life are celebrated and affirmed. Finally, you are stating that Jesus Christ and the Church will be a part of your life-long commitment to each other.

With your upcoming marriage, it is important to recognize that much more is happening than simply a wedding ceremony, important as that is. You are being married. The wedding is the public celebration of your life-long commitment before God and to one another. It begins the marriage. You are invited to make your focus not so much on the wedding as on the marriage.

Marriage has been around since the beginning of time! There is nothing essentially "Christian" about it. People of all faiths and cultures join in marriage. And yet, we as Christians celebrate the holiness of marriage by joining husband and wife together under the blessing of God.

Covenant

Marriage is essentially a Covenant of Fidelity between a man and a woman made with society's sanction and grounded in the steadfast love of God. As God is faithful to us, so we can be faithful toward each other in love.

Marriage is also a Social Contract, the basis of which is the commitment that the man and woman make to each other. Contrary to the popular understanding, the basis in marriage is not just romantic love, for such love is changeable. You cannot promise to be 'in love' years hence, but you can make a loving commitment to each other. For people, faithfulness and romantic love do not necessarily go together. But in God the two are joined! Marital vows of fidelity grounded in the love of God will abide forever.

The Marriage

It is not the pastor who performs the marriage, but the wedding couple. Both the Church and State have an interest in marriage. But the marriage itself is conducted by the two partners. Their vows of faithfulness and commitment serve as the heart of their marriage. In the wedding service, they ask for God's blessing and support.

First Steps

Who Can Be Married at Faith Lutheran Church?

Faith Lutheran pastoral staff and building are available for member weddings. Weddings may be scheduled by members and those who are actively worshipping and scheduled to attend a member ship class. Non-member weddings are held only with approval of the senior pastor.

The Date and The Pastor

Call the church off (319-377-9700) as early as possible to see if the date you have selected is available for your wedding. A $100 deposit is required to hold your reservation.

We have two pastors at Faith Lutheran Church. The pastor you will work with will depend on the date you have selected. You may request a particular pastor and you will be notified if the pastor is available to work with you. If you would like additional clergy to participate, please first contact the pastor from Faith Lutheran who is presiding at your service.

Marriages are not celebrated during Holy Week, the day before Easter, the day before the church school Christmas program or Christmas Eve.

Because of the need to schedule more than one wedding per Saturday, we offer the following times for your wedding:

1:00, 4:00 or 7:00 pm Summer Wedding time: 1:00 pm

Your scheduling of Faith Church for your wedding gives you 3 1/2 hours use of the church. This time may be divided in the following manner;

2 1/2 hours for dressing and pictures up until the beginning of the service

1/2 hour for the service

1/2 hour for receiving line

Wedding Coordinator

Karen Cain 377-3882

Preparatory Sessions

All couples who are being married at Faith Lutheran are required to attend a premarital workshop. Call the pastor 4-6 months prior to your wedding date to schedule your preparatory sessions with the pastor.

The preparatory sessions not only set the wedding in the context of God's Word and wisdom, but give the pastor an opportunity to become better acquainted with you and to address any special issues you may face in your future life as a married couple.

Musicians

The organist at Faith Lutheran normally plays at all weddings where organ music is desired. The organist can assist you with choosing appropriate music for your wedding. Should you desire a different organist, arrangements and approval must first be made through the Director of Worship.

You may provide your own soloist, and if you should need additional rehearsals, arrangements must be made directly with the organist. If you need suggestions for a soloist, please contact the church office.

The License

Iowa law requires couples to secure a license to marry. By law, application for this license must be made a minimum of 3 days before the wedding and up to six months prior at the Linn County Recorder at 830 1st St. SW, Cedar Rapids. For more information about the license process, contact the Linn County Recorder at 319-892-5420 or get written instructions and download an application for a marriage license at <http://www.linncountyrecorder.com/vitals.asp>. Cost for the license is $35 and following the ceremony, the pastor will file the form with the County Registrar within fifteen days.

Invitations

If you wish to invite the pastor to your rehearsal dinner or to the wedding reception, please extend a written invitation.

Rehearsal

The time and availability of the church building for the rehearsal must be arranged with the wedding coordinator as far in advance as possible. It is important that the rehearsal begin at the scheduled time. Rehearsals do not last more than an hour- if you wish extra time for decorating, etc., please make arrangements with the church office ahead of time. The desired time for rehearsal would be 6:00 pm.

Flowers and Decorations

Please coordinate the delivery of flowers with the time the building has been reserved for the wedding, or make special arrangements with the wedding coordinator. If you desire a unity candle or aisle runner you must purchase them on your own.

Bulletins

It is helpful, but not necessary to have printed bulletins for your wedding service. Bulletins inform your guest as to the order of the service and identify the participants. A sample bulletin is available at the back of this booklet. Bulletins are provided if desired for an additional cost. Please go over this with the wedding coordinator.

Photography/Videography

We recommend that all formal pictures be taken before the ceremony and must conclude 30 minutes prior to the start of the service. Lights/flash may not be used during the ceremony, with the exception of the wedding party processional and recessional. Video cameras may be used without additional lights during the service, provided the videographer speaks to the wedding coordinator prior to set up to ensure they are placed unobtrusively. Photographers are expected to abide by the instructions of the church wedding coordinator.

Church Seating

The sanctuary seats 245 comfortably. Additional seating of approximately 60 seats may be arranged by setting chairs in the narthex and opening the dividers to the sanctuary.

Receptions

The church Fellowship Hall can accommodate a maximum of 150 guests for a reception. If you are interested in additional information regarding a church reception, contact the church office/wedding coordinator.

Church Policies

Faith Lutheran Church is not responsible for personal items that are lost or stolen while you are in the church or on church property. While we do our best to help by locking doors, we need your help to ensure the safety of your purses, cameras, etc. Likewise, gifts that are brought to the wedding are not the responsibility of the church. Someone should be in charge of the gifts, purses and cameras at all times.

The use of alcoholic beverages and illegal drugs on the church grounds or premises is strictly prohibited. Smoking is only allowed outside; please extinguish your cigarette in the appropriate receptacle located outside the church.

The Wedding Service

The typical order of worship is found on page 286 of the Evangelical Lutheran Worship. A copy is found later in this booklet. Please review the service. At the Pastor's discretion, additions and changes can be made in the service as long as they are liturgically and theologically appropriate.

Bible Readings

Because marriage is a gift from God and the Christian marriage service is also a statement of faith, we ground the celebration and the promises of marriage in God's holy word. Unless approved by the presiding pastor, the readings in your service should be from the Bible.

Generally there are two or three Bible readings. You may choose to have a person or persons significant to you read the scriptural passages, or the pastor may read them.

The texts you choose for your wedding will reveal something about your relationship. The list below are suggested passages. Please keep in mind the following in choosing your passages: What drew you to select these passages? How does this passage speak to your shared commitment and your hopes for the future? How does the passage speak of God's blessings and God's activity in marriage? Does it reveal a vision for your married life? Be sure to share with the pastor why you have chosen the texts you have.

Genesis 1:26-28
Genesis 2:18-24
Genesis 24:48-51, 58-67
Proverbs 3:3-6

The Vows

The vows and promises that you make to one another are at the center of the wedding service. It is by your promises that you bind yourselves together as husband and wife. You may choose from the following options for the wording of your promises or you may adapt the wording in consultation with the pastor.

I take you, _____, to be my wife/husband from this day forward, to join with you and share all that is to come, and I promise to be faithful to you until death parts us.

I take you, _____, to be my wife/husband, and these things I promise to you: I will be faithful to you and honest with you; I will respect, trust, help and care for you. I will share my life with you. I will forgive you as we have been forgiven; and I will try with you to better understand ourselves, the world and God through the best and the worst of what is to come as long as we both shall live.

I take you, _____, to be my wife/husband. I promise before God and these witnesses to be your faithful husband/wife, to share with you in plenty and in want, in joy and in sorrow, in sickness and in health. I promise to forgive and strengthen you, and to join with you so that together we may serve God and each other as long as we both shall live.

I take you, _____, to be my wife/husband from this day forward; to join with you and share all that is to come. To give and to receive, to speak and to listen, to inspire and to respond, and in all circumstances of our life together to be loyal to you with my whole life and with all my being until death parts us.

In the presence of God and this community,
I, _____, take you, _____, to be my wife/husband; to have and to hold from this day forward, in joy and in sorrow, in plenty and in want, in sickness and in health, to love and to cherish, as long as we both shall live. This is my solemn vow.

The Service of Marriage

Entrance

Greeting

- P The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.
- C And also with you.

Declaration of Intention

- P Name, will you have name to be your wife/husband, to live together in the covenant of marriage? Will you love her/him, comfort her/him, honor and keep her/him, in sickness and in health, and forsaking all others, be faithful to her/him as long as you both shall live?
- C I will.
- P Will all of you, by God's grace, uphold and care for name and name in their life together?
- C We will.

Prayer of the Day

- P Let us pray. Gracious God, you sent your Son Jesus Christ into the world to reveal your love to all people. Enrich name and name with every good gift, that their life together may show forth your love; and grant that at the last we may all celebrate with Christ the marriage feast that has no end;
in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.
- C Amen

Bible Readings

Sermon

Hymn of the Day

Vows

I take you, name, to be my wife/husband from this day forward, to join with you and share all that is to come, and I promise to be faithful to you until death parts us.

Or:

In the presence of God and this community,
I, name take you, name, to be my wife/husband;
to have and to hold from this day forward, in joy and in sorrow, in plenty and in want, in sickness and in health, to love and to cherish, as long as we both shall live.
This is my solemn vow.

Giving of Rings

Name, I give you this ring as a sign of my love and faithfulness.

Or:

Name, I give you this ring as a symbol of my vow.
With all that I am, and all that I have, I honor you,
in the name of the Father,
and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Acclamation

Name and name, by the promises before God and in the presence of this assembly, have joined themselves to one another as husband and wife. Those whom God has joined together let no one separate. Amen. Thanks be to God.

Marriage Blessing

P Most gracious God, we give you thanks for your tender love in sending Jesus Christ to come among us, to be born of a human mother, and to endure the cross for our sake, that we may have abundance of life.

By the power of your Holy Spirit pour out the abundance of your blessing on name and name. Defend them from every enemy. Lead them into all peace. Let your love be a seal upon their hearts, a mantle about their shoulders, and a crown upon their foreheads.

Bless them so that their lives together may bear witness to your love. Bless them in their work and in their companionship; in their sleeping and in their waking; in their joys and in their sorrows; in their life and in their death.

Finally, in your mercy, bring them to that table where your saints feast forever in your heavenly home, through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Prayers of Intercession

P Gracious and faithful God,
C hear our prayer.
AMEN.

Option: Service may continue with the peace.

Lord's Prayer

P Let us join together and pray the prayer that our Lord taught us to pray.

C Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed by thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

Peace

P The peace of Christ be with you always.
C And also with you.

Blessing

P The blessed and the holy Trinity make you strong in faith and love, defend you on every side, and guide you in truth and peace, now and forever. Amen

Or P God Almighty send you light and truth to keep you all the days of your life. The hand of God protect you; the holy angels accompany you; and the blessing of almighty God, the Father, the +Son, and the Holy Spirit, be with you now and forever. Amen.

Dismissal

P Go in peace. Serve the Lord.
C Thanks be to God.

P It is now my honor and privilege to introduce you to name and name last name, who are united in marriage.
